Update or Upload Files for Paper 54

For LNCS proceedings you should prepare your paper using either LaTeX or Microsoft Word. Please follow the instructions below depending on whether you use LaTeX or Microsoft Word.

You should also submit a signed copyright form. The copyright form can be submitted either together with the paper or separately.

Paper Prepared Using LaTeX

To submit your paper, you should upload a zip archive (with the extension .zip) and a PDF file. The archive must contain the LaTeX source required to produce your paper. Both EasyChair and Springer Verlag should be up to date and contain CTAN LaTeX packages. However, you should include in the archive all non-standard or locally used LaTeX packages.

The main LaTeX file must be in the top directory of the archive. Other files may be put in either the top directory or subdirectories of the archive. If you use LaTeX, before you put the files in the archive please check that running pdflatex (or latex) on your main file produces no errors. On Unix-like systems you can create the archive using the following procedure. Assume that the main LaTeX file is main.tex and it is placed in the directory papers/conf.

Then use the following sequence of actions

cd papers/conf latex main
... check that there are no error messages ...
zip -r mypaper.zip *

It will produce the zip file mypaper.zip that can be uploaded. Your paper will be produced again from the LaTeX source. We will then use your pdf file to compare it with the files obtained from the source.
The main file name may not contain whitespace characters or any of the following symbols: \ / ' > < , ; " | .
